

Gold and War

Why is gold not jumping when everything is in its favor?

"Gold is going down. War is coming".

Thus the people used to say in distance times, when paper currency had not yet made its appearance.

Gold at the time was money and with gold the king could buy the iron needed to make arms and with arms the king could conquer ever more riches, getting his gold back many times over.

Gold for the mistress

Silver for the maid

Copper for the craftsman

Cunning in his trade

Good, said the Baron

Sitting in his hall

But iron, cold iron

Is the master of them all

R. Kipling

Out of gold one cannot make arms. However gold fills the war chest. So when arms were needed in the past, gold came on the market and its price went down.

Now let us move forward to our modern times, where we find the basic human character unchanged, but the overall scenario of daily life very much so.

The birth of paper currency and banking have changed inter-human relations worldwide profoundly. Three factors stand out here:

Firstly, Banking has put the world on its head. Banking is nothing else but a parasitic "Wealth Transfer Machine". Through banking, a power-hungry Master Cabal has been able to transfer the wealth of people and nations into their own coffers.

Empowered by all the stolen riches, the Cabal has further succeeded in obtaining the absolute control over all that stands for finance, markets, arms industries, media, government, you and me.

Absolute control from the top down is totally contrarian and against all the rules of real, solid prosperity, democracy and free enterprise. Proven natural and healthy growth does only come from grassroots, broad-based from the bottom up.

Secondly: the undisciplined emission of paper currency and credit creation out of thin air has caused a totally unnatural explosion of global population growth accompanied by a frenzy of overheated, opportunistic human activity as never seen before in history. The result has created a most flimsy, unstable new world order that is hanging by the threads. And that on a small planet filled to the brim with people bumping into one another without any elbow space left. The people, economies and finances are disoriented, in chaos and disarray and far from adapted to this so called new world order .

And thirdly, last but not least: The Cabal's Banks, supported by the cyber revolution, have laid the groundwork for an Orwellian State where but a handful of "Masters" control and manage people like ants, more efficient than whatever an old-fashioned dictator could ever have wished for.

Like Hitler high-jacked their government from the German people, today a small but mighty Cabal, fixated with spreading its wings into an one-world power, has high-jacked the whole government of the United States including its presidency, its Congress and Senate, to serve as its own private base of operations.

Till recently, this obscure Cabal has managed to advance its tentacles of usurpation by sheer financial means, supported by the status of the dollar as international reserve currency. Adding here, that besides the power the reserve currency status provides, they stayed well aware of the fact that a currency and especially a reserve currency does also have to have the back up of real assets, just in case. Thus the Cabal coupled the dollar to oil and made it the petro-dollar.

But oil is widely spread out all over the globe. That means that oil in turn needs its own back up and that is where global military power comes into play.

Dollar, oil and military power took over from the gold power of old based on "who holds the gold rules the world".

And thus the Cabal saw to it that their base country, the United States, grew strong military. No other nation spends by far what the Cabal States relishes on its military. Over 700 bases overseas, military interventions wherever, undercover operations, NSA, the CIA, and money for nations and politicians supporting the their Cabal cause, and so on.

And who is paying for all that? Well, the whole Sucker World has been doing just that by their on-going acceptance of the flood of Dollar IOU's the American Cabal Banks keep creating out of nothing and spewing it into the eager lap of the World of Dummies.

And all went smoothly for the Cabal till
- the first bits of distrust in the value of the dollar appeared when the USA started to run out of Gold that was needed to comply with the gold to dollar conversion obligations and Nixon was consequently forced to sever the dollar gold link.
- The next hurdle came when the Iran crisis dented the trust in the ability of the Cabal to keep their dominant role in controlling world oil.

The dollar should not have any competitors! In the old times gold filled the war chest to buy the arms. So today the dollar now linked to oil should stay at least equivalent to gold to keep the Cabal war chest filled this time with oil, to the brim!

Hence schemes were devised to keep control of the gold price and control of the flow of oil under tight management and keep the value of the dollar and all dollar denominated assets up.

These schemes included re-investment strategies for the petro dollar, market interventions, manipulation of the basic interest rates, the gold price and gold leasing, Central Bank gold sales, media controlled propaganda against gold, derivatives and High Frequency Trading algos. All that creamed off with lies, lies and lies and morality out off the window! The result is that today everything financial is being controlled, manipulated and obfuscated.

But with all these actions the Cabal has painted itself financially into a corner:

-Interest rates are at bottom and cannot rise without defaulting the very USA.
- The gold price suppression can only still be maintained through naked short selling (that means selling for something one does not possess for future delivery). And that will only work till "default of delivery" is called.

It is to be expected that the Cabal will go on relentlessly with their dollar spewing as long as there will be Dummies excepting them.

They will also go on with their naked shorting of gold as long as there will be Dummies not going for the real gold but only for the paper gold.

Sometimes I am asking myself if there are really still so many Dummies left to get fleeced in the paper gold markets or is it that what we see from the outside is nothing else than the Cabal buying and selling 'internally through Algos, with the sole purpose to fabricate and to show low, artificial gold and silver price quotations to mislead the audience?

On top of having itself painted into a financial corner, also the Cabal's power to control world oil has dwindled and is under attack on all sides.

Already early on did Putin recognize the Cabal's Achilles heel and based his strategies and actions accordingly. Putin as made Russia the world's biggest oil producer and exporter. And he has succeeded in making Europe to a high degree dependent on Russian oil and gas.

With trust evaporated, the gold in the war-chest gone and the control over world oil lost, the dollar will collapse rapidly and then there won't be any real money left to run the show, and not even for only one day longer to keep the Cabal's military establishment financed and alive. All this will lead to a rapidly deteriorating external collapse of the Cabal Empire.

And parallel, as there will neither be any real money left at home to pay the government employees and dependents, the pensions, social security, obamacare, food stamps and so on, the internal collapse of the Empire will follow soonthereafter.

Till all that happens the Cabal has no other choice then to

- go on with merciless bombing gold (and silver) day in day out, harder and harder
- keep on suppressing the interest rates
- and at the same time keep on fighting the indirect oil wars with Russia: in the Ukraine, Syria, Libya, Southern Sudan, along world's pipelines and coming to Saudi Arabia.

But when the very moment arrives and their financial wars and oil wars by proxy will not work any longer, then the Cabal will have to act quickly to avoid collapse. Then their only escape route left will be to unleash the dogs of war. After all they don't mind by what means, be it financially, economically, politically or military. They are ruthlessly fixated with power like all Great Dictators before in history.

Although the Cabal tried desperately by planting false flags in Syria and the Ukraine to provoke Putin in starting a war from his side, so as to be able to blame a world war on him and thus keep Europe and world opinion on their, the Cabal's side, Putin did not fall into the trap.

Russia and China do have no interest at all in starting a big war at present from their side. First of all they know that they are not yet up to the Americans militarily and secondly they have presently enough on their hands with building gigantic infrastructures like 4000km pipelines, new super-ports, new railways, silk roads and whatever.

It is the Cabal that needs a war to cover up its Ponzi schemes, its dire financial situation and the cracks appearing in its illegally usurped empire. Besides all that the Cabal knows that the Russians and Chinese will be bypassing them in nuclear, missile, cyber, satellite and basic military power in the not to distant future. So why wait!

There is only one slim glimmer of hope left for the world : A timely awakening of the American People themselves to salvage and take back their beloved country out of the claws of this hideous Cabal before it will be too late.

It will all happen suddenly, not slowly. And only at the bitter end, when the Evil Forces of the Cabal will lose their dominance, then their Empire will either brake down in chaos, or in a last show of panic the Cabal might then unleash their dogs of war.

Only then will it be that gold will start rising again, not a moment earlier.

It is going to happen all over again like in the "good" old times: "Gold is going down. A war is coming".
